

There are a dozen golf courses in the county and each one is unique and tailored for any level of golfer. The courses are ideal as each course is challenging, but not impossible. There are 6-hole, 9-hole, 18- and 27-hole courses available. From the novice to the professional, golfers will be sure to find their niche, whatever their level of play.

The county's parkland courses offer different types of terrain and the atmosphere, all unique within themselves.

In the northern area of the county, in Paso Robles and Atascadero, the weather is warmer and the courses are set amidst oak groves and wine country. The north coast area of Morro Bay offers cool coastal weather and spectacular ocean views. The southern courses in Avila Beach and Arroyo Grande offer lush fairways and challenging terrain in extraordinary California countryside.

Relaxed and uncrowded, courses throughout San Luis Obispo County are all within 30 miles of each other and all offer a wide range of tee times. So don't hesitate to call the day you arrive. You'll discover what many locals have known for years—San Luis Obispo County is a golfer's paradise!
